

Angie Bowser
Small business owner

Click Portrait Studio was established in June of 2007. Angie Bowser took the suggestion from her sister to open a portrait studio in southern Indiana that delivered professional portraits while the customer waited.

Technology had brought this service to Louisville however we had determined that our community needed this type of service as well.

After developing a business plan and knowing that Angie wanted this business to be committed to supporting missionary families and missions who are out spreading the word of God, Angie approached her parents, Grant and Paulette Oakes, to be the financial backers to bring this dream to a reality. After they agreed to support Angie's plan, she went to work with her husband Randy Bowser and Click was established nearly 6 months later.

Click Portrait Studio is located at 4212-2 Charleston Rd. (in front of Meijer) in New Albany, IN. Their phone number is 812-945-8888. After receiving your 30 minute photography session, your pictures will be downloaded and enhanced by CLICK's professional photographers. Within 20 minutes after your photography session, you will view and receive many keepsakes to be treasured for a lifetime.

CLICK, who's acronym is Christ's Love In Colourful Keepsakes, has a sister company, CPS Worldwide Missions. CPSWM is supported by the profits of CLICK's sales and is used to support numerous non for profit organizations, church mission projects, and individuals who are out spreading the Word of God. CLICK also likes to invest in the lives of our children who will soon grow up to be our next generation.

Betty Stengel
General Manage Minority
Owned Small Business

Maria L. Crame, a native of Manila, the Philippines, has been a housewife and mother of four for 41 years, is coming out of the kitchen and working with ink and toners now. Her family became interested in the un-franchised business called INK & TONER USA, located in West Palm Beach, Florida, in 2006, and opened their first store in the Jeffersontown area in 2007. The children are grown and live in different areas of the country. Mrs. Crame enjoys her role as an entrepreneur and doing volunteer work at the Cathedral of the Assumption.

Mrs. Crame enjoys meeting the people who come into the store located at 1850 S Hurstbourne Parkway. The store is experiencing steady growth with many customers returning to have their cartridges refilled. The store sells original equipment cartridges and toners, but our focus is selling compatible and remanufactured cartridges and toners for all the major brands. Our policy is 100% guarantee. We can arrange to have orders drop shipped to our customers businesses.

Betty Stengel has been associated with the store since July, 2008. In August, 2009, she became the manager. Betty is active in several different occupations and enjoys a good challenge! Working at the Ink & Toner store when the economic downturn happened, we knew we could offer our customers products that would allow their ink and print dollars to go farther. Remanufactured cartridges and inks help improve the environment as well.
